DISCUSSION NOTES	Ms. Seabolt presenting: Requesting materials to get our school garden going. We have had a lot of soil donated by families. We need soil to start our 5 raised bed gardens, one for each grade level. Looking for irrigation tubing, and watering materials. We need plants, fruit trees. Also working on getting donations. Going to do some outreaches to get as many donations as possible. Sprayers for the hoses. Need to have more materials to continue growing our composting. Some more garden tools. We are on the district schedule for them to come out and give some guidelines. Requesting $400. Garden funds would have to come from undesignated which is at $22,000 Thinking more along the lines of a blanket PO for funds Going to also contact TEP to see if we can get the trees from their homeowner program
CONCLUSIONS

RESOLUTION	All in Favor
ITEM TITLE	HEIDI SONGS
DISCUSSION NOTES	Reddix would like $99 for a subscription for Heidi’s Songs. 1600 music education videos. Benchmark Advance used to have them free, but no longer has them available. Correlates with the curriculum. This is for one login/subscription.

	Reddix motions to approve $99 for Heidi’s Songs from undesignated funds Seconded by Mr. Bizub All in favor
RESOLUTION	Unanimous Approval
ITEM TITLE	Healthy Play
DISCUSSION NOTES	Part of 6 th grade is building mentorship opportunities for them. The garden is one of their opportunities, but Healthy Play has also been discussed. Spencer Gorin would come to work with the 6 th graders to work with them to become mentors. It would be $6,000 for 3 opportunities for them to work with Spencer. The 6 th graders will only be here for 3 more quarters. Healthy Play helps with behavior improvement through play. 6 th graders did have Healthy Play as 5 th graders and were able to spend some time with Spencer. Ms. Rocha reached out to Ms. Kamell for support with 6 th grade PE. Reddix shared at a former school the middle school would develop a plan for the elementary students to go through rotations of games led by the 6 th graders. Harris motions to strike Healthy Play from the agenda. Seconded by Kamell All in favor
